G. & S. I. WRECK ON COLUMBIA BRANCH

Pinola, Miss., May 19.—The most destructive wreck in the history of the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad happened two and a half miles south of here Saturday evening. A northbound freight, with a load of lumber and crossties, was passing a curve on an embankment, and a wheel on one of the box cars broke and precipitated fourteen cars down the hill. As a result there was a mass of piled up and broken cars, and all traffic was delayed about twenty-four hours. No one was hurt, but heavy property loss was sustained.

TO HEAR THIRTY DIVORCE CASES

Bay St. Louis, May 19.—The spring term of Chancery Court for the Second Judicial District convened here today. There are about thirty divorce cases on the docket. Otherwise the business is light.

SET HOTEL ON FIRE FOR MOTION-PICTURE SHOW.

The "thriller" of the recent Police and Firemen's Benefit held in Los Angeles, was the burning of a four-story hotel, erected at a cost of $5,000 by a motion-picture company. The conflagration served two purposes. It provided the motion-picture concern with a thrilling "fire-rescue" film, and drew nearly 25,000 people to the benefit, clearing about $20,000 for the creation a pension fund for the police and firemen of Los Angeles. Quora. "I don't believe Johnny's teacher is quite right in her mind," said Mrs. Lapsling. "When he came home from school yesterday he told me to come across the word penitentiary and asked her how to pronounce it, and she said he must place the accent on his Amy Penitentiary. Did you ever hear anything as crazy as that?" Chicago Tribune.

Monument In New York City to Perpetuate the Name of Carl Schurz, German-American Patriot.

At Morningside Avenue West and One Hundred and Sixteenth street, New York city, a handsome monument has been erected to the memory of Carl Schurz, great German American patriot and statesman. It was designed and wrought by Karl Bitter. The full size figure of Schurz is of bronze and shows Schurz in the long coat he so often wore. Bust-reliefs around the base represent Schurz's work on behalf of the Indian and the negro, and on the pedestal is the inscription "Carl Schurz, Defender of Liberty and Friend of Human Right." The unveiling of the monument, postponed several times, was finally set for May 10, with arrangements for the participation of many distinguished persons, among them being Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador; Mayor Gaynor of New York; Joseph H. Choate, chairman of the memorial committee, and Congressman Richard Bartholdt of Missouri. In the upper part of this illustration are shown, from left to right, the photographs of Congressman Bartholdt, Carl Schurz and Count von Bernstorff. In the lower right hand corner is a picture of Mr. Choate. To the left is a picture of the monument, draped and ready for the unveiling.

WISDOM OF THE PRISON PROBE

Yazoo Sentinel. The disclosures of the past few days in the penitentiary affairs emphasize the wisdom of Gov. Brewer in starting the investigation, and his purpose to probe affairs to the very bottom will be applauded by everyone who wants to see the rascals exposed. The Penitentiary Board of Control is equally insistent on a thorough investigation, and it is unfortunate for the interests of the State that this board and the Governor should have been involved in a personal controversy, growing out of the matter. It is hoped that they will subvert their personal differences long enough to probe this scandal to the very bottom.

VOLS SHUT OUT NEW ORLEANS. Nashville, May 19.—"Lefty" Williams had the Pelicans completely at his mercy in the first game of the series with the Vols, holding them to four widely scattered hits, one of which was of the scratchy variety, and New Orleans was shut out, 2 to 0. The Pels were worn out with their long ride, and were exceedingly fractious, keeping up a continual argument with Umpire Fifield, who was way off on balls and strikes, and gave the home team the benefit of all the close decisions. R. H. E. New Orleans . . . . . 0 4 2 Nashville . . . . . 2 8 2 Swindell and Angermeir; Williams and Ludwig and Goelby.
