Directed by Rebecca Green

LLT presents this smash musical for the first time, complete with a huge cast and catchy musical numbers!!!

After being dumped by her boyfriend, Elle Woods decides to follow him to Harvard Law School to prove she can be serious, too. Her journey of self-discovery gets her into hilarious situations and teaches her some hard truths along the way.

With all the hilarity and feel-goodness of the movie, this show takes all the lines and moments you love and sets them to music that will stay with you long after the curtain closes. It's the perfect musical comedy whether you've never seen the film or have been a fan for years.

Directed by Michaela Lin

Written by a Mississippi author, this is a truly homegrown southern comedy!

Albert returns to his hometown from the big city of Jackson, MS, after inheriting his grandmother's house. The home includes the famous Big Mama's Kitchen, a gathering place for the whole small town.

Will he give in to pressure from the community and carry on the legacy of Big Mama's Friday Night Suppers?

Full of slapstick situations, Southern humor, and the power of legacy and tradition, this comedy will make you laugh and feel good all at the same time.

Directed by Christy Liverett

Here our season takes a dramatic turn, as we examine a family figuring out how to cope with loss.

When the Jarrett family loses a member to a tragic boating accident, each person must figure out how to work their way through the grief.

They must either find a way to come together through the pain, or leave each other to deal with it in their own way.

Based on the book by Judith Guest which also spawned a film directed by Robert Redford, this drama takes a realistic look at a truly human experience.

Directed by Lacy Cockrell

See how many Seuss characters you can spot in this sweet and funny Kids Camp Musical. You just might know "Who" a few of them are!

Children and grownups alike will get the warm and fuzzies as they see the world of Dr. Seuss 's storybooks unfold before them onstage.

This show has the fantastical, crazy characters you know and love as well as fun musical numbers.

Be sure to sign up the kids to be a part of this magical experience this summer, because "a person's a person, no matter how small!"
